Lacie's Happy Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

Our sweet Lacie, a Motee pull so small,
You answered every single call.
When the karaoke started up to play,
You'd join right in, come what may.
A little howl, a happy bark,
Bringing sunshine to the dark.
With every note, you'd lend an ear,
Chasing away all our fear.

Chorus

Oh, Lacie, our bright and joyful star,
You taught us love, no matter how far.
Fourteen amazing years we shared with you,
Every moment precious, kind, and true.

Verse 2

Up by the window, a constant sight,
You'd watch the driveway, morning, noon, and night.
Waiting patiently for my car to appear,
Your happy tail chased every tear.
A loyal heart, so full of grace,
Always finding your special place.
From your perch, you'd guard the way,
Brightening up each passing day.

Chorus

Oh, Lacie, our bright and joyful star,
You taught us love, no matter how far.

Fourteen amazing years we shared with you,
Every moment precious, kind, and true.

Bridge

With a whisper, clear and low,
"Go to my son's room," I'd let you know.
And off you'd trot, without a doubt,
Knowing just what life's about.
Such trust and love, a bond so deep,
Treasured memories we will keep.

Ukulele solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Lacie, our bright and joyful star,
You taught us love, no matter how far.
Fourteen amazing years we shared with you,
Every moment precious, kind, and true.

Outro

Now peaceful, resting on the couch so soft,
Your gentle spirit lifted aloft.
In our hearts, you'll always stay,
Dreaming sweet dreams, day by day.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
