Riley's Sweet Embrace

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

A little silky friend, so soft and small,
You'd snuggle close, answering every call.
Your tiny head upon my leg would rest,
Watching TV, you were always the best.
In bed beside me, cozy and warm,
You kept my heart safe from every storm.
A gentle shadow, always near,
Chasing away every single fear.

Chorus

Oh, Riley, my sweet, dear friend,
Fourteen years, a love without end.
Every moment, a treasured art,
Forever etched within my heart.

Verse 2

Each morning bright, you'd greet me with cheer,
Jumping on my bed, holding me dear.
A gentle nudge, a kiss you'd request,
Putting my whole love to the test.
With your donut ring, backyard you'd race,
A joyful spirit, full of grace.
By French doors watching, a peaceful gaze,
Through sunny days and gentle haze.

Chorus

Oh, Riley, my sweet, dear friend,
Fourteen years, a love without end.

Riley's Sweet Embrace (continued)

Every moment, a treasured art,
Forever etched within my heart.

Bridge

If I could whisper just once more,
Before you crossed that silent shore,
I'd say your name, "Riley, I love you so much,"
Longing still for your sweet, soft touch.

Instrumental - cello solo, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Riley, my sweet, dear friend,
Fourteen years, a love without end.
Every moment, a treasured art,
Forever etched within my heart.

Outro

Now you're free, in a happy place,
Running with joy, with boundless space.
Or sleeping softly, bathed in light,
A memory glowing, ever bright.

Outro - piano, strings fade
