Lacie's Gentle Rest

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - piano, harp

Verse 1

A little fluff of white,
A joyous, barking sound,
Each time I walked back in,
My world would spin around.
Your happy, wagging tail,
A welcome bright and true,
That first day brought a love,
My heart forever knew.

Chorus

Oh, Lacie, dearest heart,
For thirteen years and more,
You played a special part,
And opened every door.
A love so pure and deep,
A bond that will not cease,
While gentle memories sleep,
You've found your sweet release.

Verse 2

Our recliner, soft and warm,
A special, quiet space,
You'd settle safe from harm,
With comfort and with grace.
A gentle, breathing sound,
Against my arm so near,
The truest peace I found,
Dispelling every fear.

Chorus

Oh, Lacie, dearest heart,
For thirteen years and more,
You played a special part,
And opened every door.
A love so pure and deep,
A bond that will not cease,
While gentle memories sleep,
You've found your sweet release.

Bridge

No longer are you hurting, my sweet friend,
Your gentle spirit soaring, without end.
I miss your presence, know that it is true,
And dream of finding Lilly there with you.

Instrumental - harp, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Lacie, dearest heart,
For thirteen years and more,
You played a special part,
And opened every door.
A love so pure and deep,
A bond that will not cease,
While gentle memories sleep,
You've found your sweet release.

Outro

Now up in heaven's gentle light,
With Lilly, free to roam,
You play through endless day and night,
Forever safe at home.

Outro - piano fade
