Loki's Morning Dew

A Tribute Song

Intro - gentle piano, harp

Verse 1

I remember when you first came to stay,
A fluffy little sprite, brightening every day.
By the backyard gate, we'd watch and wait,
Then you and dear Piper would play, sealing your fate.

Chorus

Oh, Loki, my sweet, my brave little friend,
Eight wonderful years that never truly end.
Though you've journeyed on, beyond our sight,
You fill my heart with your gentle light.

Verse 2

Those early mornings, a special delight,
Feeding the birds, bathed in soft golden light.
You'd watch me fill the birdbath, cool and clear,
Then splash and play, banishing every fear.

Chorus

Oh, Loki, my sweet, my brave little friend,
Eight wonderful years that never truly end.
Though you've journeyed on, beyond our sight,
You fill my heart with your gentle light.

Bridge

A silent promise, whispered soft and low,
"Mommy loves you forever and a day," you know.
Your paw prints remain, etched on my soul,

Helping my broken heart feel whole.

Instrumental - soft strings, celeste

Final Chorus

Oh, Loki, my sweet, my brave little friend,
Eight wonderful years that never truly end.
Though you've journeyed on, beyond our sight,
You fill my heart with your gentle light.

Outro

Now you're running free, where meadows extend,
With Boo and Molly Bear, and dear Peeky, my friend.
Under skies so vast, and spirits so bright,
You sleep in the sun, bathed in endless light.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
