Fluffy's Quiet Promise

A Tribute Song

Intro - Rhodes piano, soft strings

Verse 1

From the moment that I saw your beautiful big eyes,
You followed close beside me, beneath the morning skies.
Our walks were such a joy, a dance beneath the sun,
My little Fluffy buba, our precious life begun.
When I'd come home you'd greet me, a jumping, happy spree,
Against the glass door joyful, so thrilled to see just me.
And when a dog came on TV, you'd bark and stand so tall,
My beautiful sweet girl, you gave your loving all.

Chorus

Oh, Fluffy, my dear Fluffy, a light that shone so bright,
Eight years together, gone too soon, into the endless night.
A piece of my own heart went with you, when you had to fly,
My beautiful sweet angel, beneath the weeping sky.

Verse 2

I'd open up the door and there you'd be, my loyal friend,
Rushing to greet me always, until the very end.
Your beautiful big eyes would hold a silent plea,
To follow close behind me, just wanting to walk free.
You'd stare up at me softly, with such a knowing gaze,
A gentle, sweet companion throughout all our days.

Chorus

Oh, Fluffy, my dear Fluffy, a light that shone so bright,
Eight years together, gone too soon, into the endless night.
A piece of my own heart went with you, when you had to fly,
My beautiful sweet angel, beneath the weeping sky.

Verse 3

Your tiny paws would patter, a rhythm soft and low,
A shadow by my footsteps, wherever I would go.
The quiet comfort that you brought, a warmth within my soul,
Making every moment beautiful, making me feel whole.
My little furry guardian, so innocent and pure,
A love like ours, my Fluffy, will forevermore endure.

Chorus

Oh, Fluffy, my dear Fluffy, a light that shone so bright,
Eight years together, gone too soon, into the endless night.
A piece of my own heart went with you, when you had to fly,
My beautiful sweet angel, beneath the weeping sky.

Bridge

And in my silent whisper, I send it on the breeze,
"I'll find you again someday," to set my heart at ease.
My beautiful sweet girl, I pray that you are free,
And happy where you're running, so you can still see Mama and me.

Instrumental - Rhodes piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Fluffy, my dear Fluffy, a light that shone so bright,
Eight years together, gone too soon, into the endless night.
A piece of my own heart went with you, when you had to fly,
My beautiful sweet angel, beneath the weeping sky.

Outro - soft hum, piano fade, classical guitar

I pray my family holds you close, a comfort and a guide,
That you are happy, running free, with nothing left to hide.
Until that day I see you, across the rainbow's bend,
My precious, sweet dear Fluffy, my very dearest friend.
And softly now, I hope you watch, as stars begin to gleam,
My beautiful buba, living on within my dream.

Forever in our hearts
