Magnum's Golden Sun

A Tribute Song

Intro - cello, piano

Verse 1

From the moment you walked through the door
A loyal Doberman, asking nothing more.
You watched over Emma, our little girl,
The best babysitter in all of the world.
With eyes so keen and a spirit so bright,
You filled our home with your protective light.
A noble presence, strong and true,
Our family's guardian, that was you.

Chorus

Oh, Magnum, my friend, my heart still aches,
Twelve golden years, for goodness sakes.
You ran these trails, a hero's grace,
Leaving paw prints time can't erase.
Magnum, Magnum, forever dear,
Though you're gone, your spirit's here.

Verse 2

I miss our talks, like you understood each word I'd say,
A quiet knowing, brightening every day.
My best friend, the ranch's proud mascot too,
On every trail, my heart walked with you.
Through sun and shadow, a steadfast guide,
Always right there, by my side.
A bond unspoken, deep and real,
More than a dog, how truly I feel.

Chorus

Magnum's Golden Sun (continued)

Oh, Magnum, my friend, my heart still aches,
Twelve golden years, for goodness sakes.
You ran these trails, a hero's grace,
Leaving paw prints time can't erase.
Magnum, Magnum, forever dear,
Though you're gone, your spirit's here.

Bridge

Others may come, with fur and kind eyes,
But none could ever reach your skies.
They could never come close, my dear old friend,
A love like ours, it knows no end.

Instrumental - strings, French horn

Final Chorus

Oh, Magnum, my friend, my heart still aches,
Twelve golden years, for goodness sakes.
You ran these trails, a hero's grace,
Leaving paw prints time can't erase.
Magnum, Magnum, forever dear,
Though you're gone, your spirit's here.

Outro

Now I see you in the sun, on the green grass so wide,
Laying peacefully with Emma, side by side.
Forever dreaming, in that golden ray,
Until we meet again, another day.

Outro - piano fade
