Joey's Forever Fields

A Tribute Song

Intro - strings, piano

Verse 1

A little spaniel pup, with eyes so bright and new,
Your loving gaze, it followed all I'd do.
With every step I took, your watchfulness so clear,
Chasing shadows, conquering every fear.
A gentle soul, you nestled close to mine,
A silent promise, a love truly divine.
My loyal friend, through laughter and through tears,
You filled my life with joy, banishing all fears.

Chorus

Oh, Joey, my dear, through fourteen years we flew,
A bond of pure devotion, strong and true.
Now in the echoes, your bright spirit gleams,
Living on forever, in my heart's soft dreams.

Verse 2

I recall those mornings, cuddling by my side,
Your soft fur warming, nowhere left to hide.
In the front seat riding, the world passing by,
Your happy face turning, beneath the open sky.
Then to the greenest fields, your spirit soared and sped,
Running wild and free, no words that need be said.
A joy so pure, to watch you leap and bound,
The happiest little soul on hallowed ground.

Chorus

Oh, Joey, my dear, through fourteen years we flew,
A bond of pure devotion, strong and true.

Joey's Forever Fields (continued)

Now in the echoes, your bright spirit gleams,
Living on forever, in my heart's soft dreams.

Bridge

I whisper words now, to the sky above so vast,
"Chase all the pheasants for me, make every moment last."
Go run free like the wind, a spirit light and bold,
And save a place for me, when my own story's told.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Joey, my dear, through fourteen years we flew,
A bond of pure devotion, strong and true.
Now in the echoes, your bright spirit gleams,
Living on forever, in my heart's soft dreams.

Outro

Now you're running circles, where Skye and I still roam,
Sleeping dreamily beside me, in our quiet home.
My beautiful soul pup, forever by my side,
Your spirit is my comfort, my peace, my gentle guide.
Running through the fields, beneath the golden sun,
Your sweet journey finished, your gentle race is run.

Outro - strings fade
