Lucy's Morning Smile

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

We remember you waiting right there by the door,
Excitement in your eyes, asking for more.
A happy Goldendoodle, full of bouncy grace,
Loved to play keep away with a smile on your face.
Never down for a moment, even when you felt low,
Your spirit shone brightly, a wonderful glow.
Always greeting with joy, a love so very deep,
Sweetest promises you always did keep.

Chorus

Oh, Lucy, our darling, a love so pure and true,
Four fantastic years we spent here with you.
Your happy face shining, a melody so clear,
Chasing away every doubt and every fear.
You taught us to laugh, you taught us to play,
We celebrate your memory every single day.

Verse 2

The morning would break, and you'd come right along,
To say your hello, like a cheerful, sweet song.
That happy face beaming, a beautiful sight,
Filling our hearts with such endless delight.
So protecting and loving, a loyal, true friend,
Your spirit and joy would just never end.
You brightened our world, in your own special way,
Making each moment a beautiful day.

Four fantastic years we spent here with you.

We celebrate your memory every single day.

You truly brought sunshine into our world.
A heart full of gold, a spirit so free,
Forever a part of our family.

Now you're Lucy in the sky, with diamonds so bright,
Soaring on pegasus wings, bathed in golden light.

Our happy girl forever, beneath the endless sky.
