Fletcher's Endless Sky

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, harp

Verse 1

From the start, your beautiful spirit shone
A gentle soul, a love I'd always known
We talked with eyes, a magic deep and true
A bond between us, shining through.
You loved this life with all your joyful might
The love of my life, my morning light.

Chorus

Oh, Fletcher, my sweet, after twelve beautiful years
You wiped away all of my fears.
I miss you now with every breath I take
A silent promise, for your gentle sake.

Verse 2

Our grand adventures, side by side we'd roam
You'd fly from the car, eager to come home
Chasing gophers, through fields of purest green
The happiest sight I'd ever seen.
Your leaps of joy, they made my heart just sing
The deepest love, your presence used to bring.

Chorus

Oh, Fletcher, my sweet, after twelve beautiful years
You wiped away all of my fears.
I miss you now with every breath I take
A silent promise, for your gentle sake.

Bridge

Fletcher's Endless Sky (continued)

I still miss you every day, my angel true
But please don't be sad, I'll make it through.
Just run and play, be happy and be free
That's all I wish, my sweet Fletcher, for thee.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Fletcher, my sweet, after twelve beautiful years
You wiped away all of my fears.
I miss you now with every breath I take
A silent promise, for your gentle sake.

Outro

I know you're pain-free, soaring ever high
In heaven's fields beneath the sky.
Playing freely, bright and bold and free
We'll be together, never apart, you and me.

Outro - piano fade
