Bella's Sweet Dream

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, a gentle sigh,
The day we met, love caught my eye.
A Yorkie's spirit, brave and small,
You gave your heart, you gave your all.

Chorus

Bella, sweet Bella, my guiding star,
Eleven and a half years, no matter how far.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
Making my broken spirit whole.

Verse 2

That tiny ball, a joyful chase,
A happy bark, a smiling face.
You'd spin and leap, a playful sprite,
Filling my days with pure delight.

Chorus

Bella, sweet Bella, my guiding star,
Eleven and a half years, no matter how far.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
Making my broken spirit whole.

Bridge

Though my heart aches, the pain is deep,
A solemn promise, I will keep.
I whisper softly through the night,

"I will see you again, baby girl, in morning's light."

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Bella, sweet Bella, my guiding star,
Eleven and a half years, no matter how far.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
Making my broken spirit whole.

Outro

No more hurt, just peaceful sleep,
In endless fields, your spirit will leap.
Rest easy now, my dearest friend,
My sweet Bella, until we meet again.

Outro - piano fade
