Henry's Regal Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar

Verse 1

From the moment you came, a furry friend so grand,
A Maine Coon spirit, across our peaceful land.
Every box you claimed, every task you'd view,
Our best helper, always there for you.
With a regal look, your tail would softly sway,
Greeting every visitor, come what may.
And if you deemed them special, a true delight,
You'd grace their lap, shining ever so bright.

Chorus

Oh, Henry, our sweet boy, five years you blessed our way,
In every moment, brighter than the day.
Your gentle spirit, a love so pure and deep,
A precious promise we will always keep.

Verse 2

The morning sun would rise, a familiar sound,
Waiting by our bedroom door, on hallowed ground.
A gentle nose bump for Riley, a loving art,
Showing kindness from your truly golden heart.
Each day a gift, with purrs and playful grace,
Bringing joy and comfort to our cherished space.
A quiet presence, yet so strongly felt,
In every memory, our hearts would melt.

Chorus

Oh, Henry, our sweet boy, five years you blessed our way,
In every moment, brighter than the day.

Henry's Regal Heart (continued)

Your gentle spirit, a love so pure and deep,
A precious promise we will always keep.

Bridge

Though shadows fall and tears may softly stream,
You live within our every loving dream.
This truth we whisper, strong and clear and true,
We will love you forever Henry, forever we'll love you.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Henry, our sweet boy, five years you blessed our way,
In every moment, brighter than the day.
Your gentle spirit, a love so pure and deep,
A precious promise we will always keep.

Outro

Now with Quinn and Lou, you play in fields so wide,
Snuggling close, with nothing left to hide.
Running free, in peace you now reside,
Forever in our hearts, our Henry, our guide.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
