Charlie and Lottie's Endless Summer

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, upright bass

Verse 1

I remember clearly, the day you both arrived,
Two little Frenchies, how our world revived.
With little snorts and waddles, so funny and so sweet,
Hearing your names, Charlie, Lottie, made my heart complete.
Your playful barks, your curious gaze,
Filled every moment of those early days.
You tumbled and wrestled, a joyful, silly pair,
Bringing laughter and sunshine everywhere.

Chorus

Oh, Charlie and Lottie, my beautiful, sweet friends,
Eight years of love, a bond that never ends.
You taught me so much, with every single day,
And in my heart, you'll forever stay.

Verse 2

When twilight settled, and day turned into night,
You'd follow me closely, a comforting, warm sight.
Side by side, we'd climb the stairs,
Going to bed together, easing all my cares.
You'd snuggle in close, a soft, contented sigh,
Reflecting the love shining in your eye.
Those quiet moments, a peaceful, tender grace,
Forever held within this sacred place.

Chorus

Oh, Charlie and Lottie, my beautiful, sweet friends,
Eight years of love, a bond that never ends.

Charlie and Lottie's Endless Summer (continued)

You taught me so much, with every single day,
And in my heart, you'll forever stay.

Bridge

I love you both so much, and miss you all the time,
Every memory precious, truly sublime.
I can't wait to be together again, my dear,
Until that day, I hold your spirits near.

Instrumental - trumpet, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Charlie and Lottie, my beautiful, sweet friends,
Eight years of love, a bond that never ends.
You taught me so much, with every single day,
And in my heart, you'll forever stay.

Outro

Now you're running free, having fun together still,
Playing in sunshine, over every hill.
Happy and healthy, in a place so bright,
Forever cherished, my Charlie and Lottie, my guiding light.

Outro - ukulele fade
