Macy's Happy Bark

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

The morning sun would fill the room, a happy, quick sound breaking gloom,
The clicky clack of tiny nails, a tale of joy that never fails.
Then from the window, sharp and clear, a bark the UPS man held so dear,
My rat terrier, fierce and bright, filling every day with light.

Chorus

Oh, Macy, my sweet Macy girl, you made my lonely world unfurl,
Eight years we shared, a joyful bond, a love that stretches far beyond.
We're celebrating all you were, the happy memories endure,
Your spirit dances, light and free, a precious gift you gave to me.

Verse 2

From dawn till dusk, you stayed so near, chasing away every fear,
All day every day, side by side, with nothing left for us to hide.
A little queen, with eyes so keen, the best companion I had seen,
Your own sweet girl, a spirit bold, a story waiting to unfold.

Chorus

Oh, Macy, my sweet Macy girl, you made my lonely world unfurl,
Eight years we shared, a joyful bond, a love that stretches far beyond.
We're celebrating all you were, the happy memories endure,
Your spirit dances, light and free, a precious gift you gave to me.

Bridge

I love you so much, my heart still aches,
And miss you so much, for goodness sakes.
But now you run with boundless grace,

Macy's Happy Bark (continued)

A smile upon your happy face.

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Macy, my sweet Macy girl, you made my lonely world unfurl,
Eight years we shared, a joyful bond, a love that stretches far beyond.

We're celebrating all you were, the happy memories endure,
Your spirit dances, light and free, a precious gift you gave to me.

Outro

Now running free, no pain or sorrow, waiting for a bright tomorrow,
The best time of your life, I see, barking wild and full of glee.
Saying "stop it!" with a happy sound, the happiest girl, all around.
