Simon, My Sweet Furry Friend

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

The moment I met you, a sleek tuxedo cat,
With your little white paws and eyes shining back.
You'd announce meal times with a determined meow,
A tiny command, I can still hear it now.
That look in your eyes, so honest and true,
A pure unconditional love shining through.
You taught me a language that words couldn't hold,
A story of friendship, more precious than gold.

Chorus

Oh, Simon, my Simon, my sweet furry friend,
Fifteen wonderful years, right to the very end.
You filled every moment with joy and with grace,
A love I will carry, leaving no empty space.

Verse 2

Each morning you'd come, a soft purring sound,
Slip under the covers, where warmth could be found.
You'd knead on my arm, a comforting beat,
Making every waking moment feel sweet.
When I'd leave the door, you'd be waiting for me,
And play catch with a toy, for the whole world to see.
You'd bring it right back, a game we both knew,
So much joy in those simple things we would do.

Chorus

Oh, Simon, my Simon, my sweet furry friend,
Fifteen wonderful years, right to the very end.

Simon, My Sweet Furry Friend (continued)

You filled every moment with joy and with grace,
A love I will carry, leaving no empty space.

Bridge

I'm right here beside you, Simon, my dear,
Please visit my dreams, let me feel you so near.
Have fun playing free, 'til we meet again soon,
Our best reunion awaits, beneath sun or moon.

I loved you with all of my heart, it is true,
And I'm carrying this love, a part of me and you.

Ukulele solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Simon, my Simon, my sweet furry friend,
Fifteen wonderful years, right to the very end.
You filled every moment with joy and with grace,
A love I will carry, leaving no empty space.

Outro

Now you're playing, jumping, and running so fast,
Chasing those bugs, with pure joy that will last.
No pain, just pure happiness, wild and so free,
Waiting patiently there, someday for me.
