Febe's Joyful Dance

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, glockenspiel

Verse 1

I remember the first time, a shaggy, joyful blur,
With a playful spin and a happy whirl.
As I'd prepare your dinner plate, a sight I loved to see,
You'd pirouette and dance for me.
A Bouvier's spirit, strong and grand,
The best companion in the land.
With eyes so bright and heart so true,
My dearest friend, I cherish you.

Chorus

Oh, Febe, Febe, thirteen years flew by so fast,
A love like yours, forever it will last.
You filled our home with joy and light, a shining, happy star,
We feel your spirit near, no matter where you are.

Verse 2

Then came the couch, your special place,
A funny, sweet, and comfy space.
You'd fluff the cushions, turn around,
Without a single, barky sound.
You'd settle in, a happy sigh,
Beneath my watchful, loving eye.
Our quiet moments, side by side,
With nowhere left for peace to hide.

Chorus

Oh, Febe, Febe, thirteen years flew by so fast,
A love like yours, forever it will last.

You filled our home with joy and light, a shining, happy star,
We feel your spirit near, no matter where you are.

Bridge

I'll love you always, darling friend,
And miss you everyday, until the end.
Thank you for all the fun times, bright and new,
My heart holds every moment spent with you.

Banjo Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Febe, Febe, thirteen years flew by so fast,
A love like yours, forever it will last.
You filled our home with joy and light, a shining, happy star,
We feel your spirit near, no matter where you are.

Outro

Now running free, so wild and bold,
A story in my heart, forever told.
At the vineyard, chasing sheep with grace,
Smiling in your happy place.

Outro - piano fade
