Lotus's Endless Day

A Tribute Song

Intro

Ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

I remember your gentle face so kind,
A sweeter dog, we'd never find.
A little Shitzu, full of grace,
Always with a happy pace.
Your love for treats, a joyful sound,
The best food friend in every town.
And for your sister, Mercedes dear,
You banished every single fear.

Chorus

Oh, Lotus, our sweet boy, thirteen years so bright,
You filled our home with endless light.
Every moment with you was a treasure to behold,
A story of pure love, forever told.

Verse 2

Each morning light, each setting sun,
The special moments had just begun.
A happy bark, a wagging tail,
No joy or comfort could ever fail.
You'd follow footsteps, soft and slow,
Wherever tasty treats might go.
Your gentle spirit, pure and true,
Shining bright in all you'd do.

Chorus

Lotus's Endless Day (continued)

Oh, Lotus, our sweet boy, thirteen years so bright,
You filled our home with endless light.
Every moment with you was a treasure to behold,
A story of pure love, forever told.

Bridge

We love you so much, our precious friend,
A bond like ours will never end.
We kiss you terribly, our hearts ache on,
Though from our arms you now are gone.

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Lotus, our sweet boy, thirteen years so bright,
You filled our home with endless light.
Every moment with you was a treasure to behold,
A story of pure love, forever told.

Outro

Now sleeping soft, your spirit free,
Enjoying treats eternally.
In sunlit dreams, you softly play,
Lotus, our love, until that day.

Outro - ukulele fade
