Jasmine's Gentle Walk

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, harp

Verse 1

From the moment you arrived, a tiny crying sound,
A little Which Tsu, the sweetest dog we'd found.
So smart and loving, with a heart so true,
You'd take your medicine, if mixed with meat for you.
You loved us fiercely, a bond we couldn't break,
And for your Mama Coco, a special love you'd make.
You never liked to be alone, close by our side you'd stay,
We miss your gentle presence, more and more each day.

Chorus

Oh, Jasmine, dear Jasmine, our love will never cease,
Ten cherished years together, brought us so much peace.
Your memory softly whispers, like a sweet, calm breeze,
You're forever in our hearts, among the rustling trees.

Verse 2

Each evening, at the doorway, your happy bark would cheer,
A wagging tail of greeting, chasing away all fear.
Into the backyard garden, you'd softly make your way,
To watch the blooming flowers, brightening up your day.
The way you walked was charming, a graceful, gentle sway,
An adorable little dancer, in your own unique way.

Chorus

Oh, Jasmine, dear Jasmine, our love will never cease,
Ten cherished years together, brought us so much peace.
Your memory softly whispers, like a sweet, calm breeze,
You're forever in our hearts, among the rustling trees.

Bridge

My precious girl, I whisper, "Play and jump again, my love,"
I long to hold and play with you, in heaven up above.
My heart just aches to tell you, "I love you so, so much,"
Until that day we meet again, I dream of your soft touch.

Instrumental - strings, celeste

Final Chorus

Oh, Jasmine, dear Jasmine, our love will never cease,
Ten cherished years together, brought us so much peace.
Your memory softly whispers, like a sweet, calm breeze,
You're forever in our hearts, among the rustling trees.

Outro

Now with God, we pray you're safe, running free and bright,
Knowing all our love surrounds you, through the endless night.
We miss you, sweet Jasmine, beneath the moon's soft gleam,
Sleeping peacefully forever, within a loving dream.

Outro - piano fade
