Dolly's Sweet Good Morning

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, soft strings

Verse 1

The morning light would softly creep,
While I was still in slumber deep.
But then a nudge, a happy sound,
My sweet Frenchie was always found.
At eight AM, without a doubt,
You'd wake me up to move about.
With breakfast done, a happy chase,
Then kisses smothered on my face.

Chorus

Oh Dolly, my sweet baby girl,
You brightened up my whole wide world.
For three years and ten months so true,
My heart belonged to only you.

Verse 2

From morning light to closing day,
You always wanted me to stay.
The "in-between" hours were divine,
Your tiny paws entwined in mine.
A gentle scratch upon your back,
A love that never felt the lack.
You watched me with your soulful eyes,
Beneath the ever-changing skies.

Chorus

Oh Dolly, my sweet baby girl,
You brightened up my whole wide world.

For three years and ten months so true,
My heart belonged to only you.

Bridge

They say a whisper, soft and low,
Is how our deepest feelings flow.
"I love you, mommy, oh so much,"
My baby girl, your gentle touch.
A precious bond, so pure and deep,
Forever cherished, I will keep.

Instrumental - strings, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh Dolly, my sweet baby girl,
You brightened up my whole wide world.
For three years and ten months so true,
My heart belonged to only you.

Outro

Now pain-free, free to run and play,
With other pups throughout the day.
I picture you in endless fields,
The joy your happy spirit yields.
Sleep soft, my love, my precious friend,
A bond like ours will never end.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
