Olly's Gentle Peek

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

Remember sweet Olly, so small and so grand,
A Jack Russell heart in my comforting hand.
You'd quietly wander, then peek around the door,
In the kitchen or bathroom, always wanting more.
Your curious spirit, a joy to behold,
A story of friendship, more precious than gold.

Chorus

Oh, Olly, dear Olly, my sweet little friend,
Seventeen fun-filled years, until the very end.
You taught me of loyalty, pure and so true,
My heart holds the memories, forever of you.

Verse 2

Those mornings we shared, a warm, gentle embrace,
Your soft fur beside me, finding your special place.
A wonderful co-pilot, beside me you'd ride,
My constant companion, always by my side.
Such a special little guy, with eyes full of light,
Making every day feel precious and bright.

Chorus

Oh, Olly, dear Olly, my sweet little friend,
Seventeen fun-filled years, until the very end.
You taught me of loyalty, pure and so true,
My heart holds the memories, forever of you.

Bridge

I'll miss you, always, in ways words can't say,
My significant other, through every long day.
Thank you for loving me, with all of your heart,
Though we're now miles apart.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Olly, dear Olly, my sweet little friend,
Seventeen fun-filled years, until the very end.
You taught me of loyalty, pure and so true,
My heart holds the memories, forever of you.

Outro

Now you're running free, in meadows so wide,
With our precious fur babies, by your side.
No pain, no illness, just joy in the air,
My sweet Olly's spirit, beyond all compare.

Outro - piano fade
