Chloe's Golden Path

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

A Golden heart, a spirit bright and bold,
Through every season, stories to unfold.
Long walks we took, beneath the open sky,
You watched me close, with a loving, steady eye.
When sickness came, you stayed right by my side,
My furry nurse, nowhere to run or hide.
With children's laughter, you'd chase the ball with glee,
And food, dear Chloe, was always joy for thee.

Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my sweet girl, my faithful friend,
Fifteen golden years, right to the very end.
Your paw print's etched upon my beating heart,
A bond of love that time can't tear apart.

Verse 2

Each day I'd come home, from work's weary grind,
Your joyful greeting, one of a kind.
A tennis ball held gently in your mouth,
No doubt about your love, heading north or south.
Wagging tail and eyes so full of light,
You made each day feel wonderfully bright.
Always there, a steady, warm embrace,
Bringing sunshine to my lonely space.

Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my sweet girl, my faithful friend,
Fifteen golden years, right to the very end.

Your paw print's etched upon my beating heart,
A bond of love that time can't tear apart.

Bridge

So chase the squirrels, darling, with no more pain,
Beneath the sun, or through a gentle rain.
Until we meet again, across the shining blue,
My dearest Chloe, know I truly miss you.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Chloe, my sweet girl, my faithful friend,
Fifteen golden years, right to the very end.
Your paw print's etched upon my beating heart,
A bond of love that time can't tear apart.

Outro

Now running free, in fields of tall green grass,
Chasing shadows, letting moments pass.
Bathed in sunbeams, waiting patiently,
My sweet Chloe, you'll always be with me.

Outro - guitar fade
