Missy, Fly High

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

The day you came, a tiny, sweet surprise,
With precious eyes, so soft and shining bright.
Your Dumbo ears, a captivating sight,
You filled my world with pure, unending light.
So small you were, the palm of my own hand,
A furry soul, who chose me to command.
A Chweenie's heart, so loving and so true,
My dearest friend, in everything you'd do.

Chorus

Oh, Missy, fly high, beyond the starry skies,
You graced my life for fifteen precious years.
Now free from pain, no sadness and no tears,
Your spirit soars, dispelling all my fears.

Verse 2

Each day I'd walk back through the open door,
Your happy bark, a joy I longed for more.
With wagging tail, you'd meet me with a kiss,
And fill my weary heart with perfect bliss.
Then cuddles deep, upon the couch we'd share,
A bond of love, beyond all earthly care.
Your gentle warmth, a comfort to my soul,
Making my broken spirit feel so whole.

Chorus

Oh, Missy, fly high, beyond the starry skies,
You graced my life for fifteen precious years.

Missy, Fly High (continued)

Now free from pain, no sadness and no tears,
Your spirit soars, dispelling all my fears.

Bridge

I love you so, and miss you more each day,
My heart still aches, since you went far away.
Please look for me, when God calls out my name,
And wait for me, to join your gentle flame.

Instrumental - strings, flute

Final Chorus

Oh, Missy, fly high, beyond the starry skies,
You graced my life for fifteen precious years.
Now free from pain, no sadness and no tears,
Your spirit soars, dispelling all my fears.

Outro

Beyond the Bridge, where Rainbows brightly gleam,
You run so free, a peaceful, endless dream.
No age, no pain, just joy in fields of green,
My sweet Missy, the best I've ever seen.
Fly high, dear friend, until we meet again.

Outro - cello fade
