Custom Pet Memorial Songs

Sammy, My Beautiful Boy

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

When I recall your sweet face, my Sammy,
It's your loving eyes that first appear.
A quiet depth of love, so uncanny,
Whispering "I love you," banishing all fear.
My soul felt seen, my heart found its own place,
Comforted and held within your gentle gaze.
A sturdy form, full of tender grace,
You lit up all my days in countless ways.

Chorus

Oh, Sammy, my beautiful boy, my friend,
Eleven and a half wondrous years flew by fast.
Our love's a song that will never truly end,
A precious memory that's forever meant to last.

Verse 2

Each morning walk, a promise made anew,
Side by side, we'd greet the rising sun.
In quiet evenings, letting the day go through,
Our special time, till the long day was done.
No worries then, no distractions, just us two,
Connected deeply, a world for us to share.
My heart poured out its appreciation, true,
Showing you my love beyond all compare.

Chorus

Sammy, My Beautiful Boy (continued)

"Come on, bubs, it's time for bed," I'd softly say,
You'd lift your head, then gently make your way.
Into my arms with perfect trust,
You'd melt asleep as I held you close.
"Where's my boy? Where's my boy?" I'd gently say,
You'd roll onto your back and turn yourself towards me,
Waiting for belly scratches and morning kisses,
The sweetest way to welcome each new day.

Chorus

Bridge

Sammy, thank you for your boundless love,
You were my teacher, my gift from up above.
My greatest companion, a perfect, gentle dove,
I belonged to you, a love woven through and through.
I miss you more than these words can express, it's true,
But in my heart and soul, I will always carry you.

Verse 4

Between the seats you'd proudly stand,
Watching the world as we journeyed hand in hand.
You'd gently seek my loving gaze,
Then shower me with kisses in your gentle ways.
I'd rest my head softly against yours,
Holding you close as our hearts were one.
No matter where the road would lead,
Being together was all we'd ever need.

Final Chorus

Outro

Though your physical form is no longer here,
Your loving presence surrounds me, drawing near.
Guiding my spirit, banishing every fear,
A deeper connection, held ever so dear.
You comfort my heart, I feel your love's embrace,
Watching over me with such tender grace.
Rest peacefully now, in that beautiful space,
You live forever in my heart, my beautiful boy.

Outro - piano fade, acoustic guitar
