Percival's Smiling Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

My heart and soul, my dearest friend,
A love like ours would never end.
You made me feel so loved and wanted,
A brighter world, your presence granted.
A loyal spirit, true and kind,
The sweetest comfort I could find.
You made my heart smile every day,
And chased the lonely clouds away.

Chorus

Oh, Mr. Percival James, so grand and true,
Ten years of memories, all thanks to you.
You took a piece of my heart, a precious part,
Forever living in my broken heart.

Verse 2

At the screen door, you'd wait for me,
A joyful smile, with little teeth.
I'd kneel to cuddle, kiss your fur,
No other love could quite compare.
We'd play ball then, with all your might,
A tiny star, a shining light.
You'd turn around when you'd want a lift,
A daily, treasured, precious gift.

Chorus

Oh, Mr. Percival James, so grand and true,
Ten years of memories, all thanks to you.

Percival's Smiling Heart (continued)

You took a piece of my heart, a precious part,
Forever living in my broken heart.

Bridge

Percy, my most precious friend, know I love you so,
I'll never stop needing you, as endless moments flow.
I carry your sweet memory, a piece within my soul,
Until we meet again, my boy, you make my spirit whole.

Instrumental - strings, oboe

Final Chorus

Oh, Mr. Percival James, so grand and true,
Ten years of memories, all thanks to you.
You took a piece of my heart, a precious part,
Forever living in my broken heart.

Outro

Now free from pain, I pray you rest,
With Mum and Dad, among the blest.
I hope they play ball, and hold you near,
And feel my love, across each tear.
Running free now, in peaceful light,
Until we meet again, my beautiful boy, goodnight.

Outro - piano fade
