Karma's Meadow Eyes

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The first time that I held you, little one so small,
A fluffy shadow answering my call.
With big brown eyes, a pure love I could see,
My whole world brightened, looking back at me.
A gentle spirit, full of grace and fun,
Our sweet adventure, just begun.

Chorus

Oh, Karma, my dear Karma, sweet and brave,
Sixteen years of joy, the best life gave.
A paw print on my heart, forever etched and deep,
Your memory's a treasure that I'll always keep.

Verse 2

The late nights fading, soft and low,
We'd climb in bed, our secret show.
On pillows snuggled, warm and tight,
I'd whisper "I love you" to the fading light.
Your gentle breath, a peaceful sound,
The purest comfort I had ever found.

Chorus

Oh, Karma, my dear Karma, sweet and brave,
Sixteen years of joy, the best life gave.
A paw print on my heart, forever etched and deep,
Your memory's a treasure that I'll always keep.

My little buddy, with a spirit wild and free,
You'd ride the open road right there with me.
With goggles on, through every place we'd roam,
Just "Kim and Karma," always finding home.
A fluffy sixteen pounds, my guardian, loyal and true,
My heart was always safe, protected by you.

Bridge

Now I whisper softly, "Be happy, it's OK,"
I know you're waiting for me, 'til that hopeful day.
I'll find you again, across the sunlit ground,
Where peace and joy and love are always found.

Instrumental - banjo, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, Karma, my dear Karma, sweet and brave,
Sixteen years of joy, the best life gave.
A paw print on my heart, forever etched and deep,
Your memory's a treasure that I'll always keep.

Outro

I see you running in that sunlit place,
A meadow green, a smile upon your face.
By a waterfall, so clear and bright,
Chasing butterflies, bathed in golden light.
Digging up old bones, with joyful, happy barks,
Playing with your friends, leaving happy marks.
Waiting for me there, beyond the setting sun,
Your journey's peaceful now, your race is won.

Outro - guitar fade
