Odin's Quiet Couch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

I recall the day, so long ago,
A tiny heart, a timid show.
You hid beneath the old Ford car,
A journey stretching out so far.
Then Westie spirit took its hold,
A muddy story to unfold.
Digging deep in earth and grime,
A joyful, messy, precious time.

Chorus

Odin, sweet Odin, a love so deep and true,
Sixteen years of precious moments with you.
You rest now, but your memory stays bright,
A guiding star, a gentle light.

Verse 2

The workday ended, sun declined,
A cherished ritual we'd find.
You'd wait for me, a happy bark,
Then settle in as daylight turned to dark.
Upon the couch, our quiet space,
A peaceful joy upon your face.
We'd simply be, just you and I,
As silent moments drifted by.

Chorus

Odin, sweet Odin, a love so deep and true,
Sixteen years of precious moments with you.

You rest now, but your memory stays bright,
A guiding star, a gentle light.

Verse 3

Your little paws upon the floor,
A soft warm welcome at the door.
Each morning sun, each passing day,
You chased the worries far away.
A quiet gaze, a knowing stare,
A faithful heart beyond compare.
My steadfast friend, so brave and small,
You gave your love, you gave your all.

Verse 4

Through all the years, a faithful friend,
Your loyal heart, until the end.
Each morning light, each setting sun,
Our journey shared, till life was done.
The sound of paws, a gentle beat,
Made every day feel so complete.
A quiet joy, a steady grace,
That filled our home, and every space.

Bridge

My silent whisper, soft and low,
My love for you will only grow.
I'll love you for the rest of my days,
And miss you in a million ways.

Instrumental - cello solo

Final Chorus

Odin, sweet Odin, a love so deep and true,
Sixteen years of precious moments with you.
You rest now, but your memory stays bright,
A guiding star, a gentle light.

Outro

Now free to roam, where spirits play,
With brother Thor, you chase away.
A game of hide and seek, so grand,
In that sweet, eternal land.

Outro - piano fade
