Emma's Gentle Morning

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

I remember when you first arrived, a tiny little friend so sweet
Just a little Yorkie, where my quiet world would meet
We had our special "cozy time," a blanket for your sleepy head
And played with your "binky bone," before you went to bed.

Chorus

Oh, Emma, my dear Emma, thirteen wonderful years we knew
A bond so deep and tender, in everything we did and do
Though now you're gone, your light remains, a soft and guiding glow
My sweet Emma, how I miss you so.

Verse 2

Every day you waited by the door, the very "first to greet" my return
And "morning time" was precious, a lesson love would learn
A tiny paw, a happy sigh, the comfort of your gentle heart
A nightly "parfait" shared with me, right from the very start.

Chorus

Oh, Emma, my dear Emma, thirteen wonderful years we knew
A bond so deep and tender, in everything we did and do
Though now you're gone, your light remains, a soft and guiding glow
My sweet Emma, how I miss you so.

Bridge

My heart still longs to feel you near, to hold you close and tight
I "can't wait to snuggle with you again," in the soft morning light
A love like ours can never fade, it echoes through the years

Emma's Gentle Morning (continued)

Washing away my sorrow and my tears.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Emma, my dear Emma, thirteen wonderful years we knew
A bond so deep and tender, in everything we did and do
Though now you're gone, your light remains, a soft and guiding glow
My sweet Emma, how I miss you so.

Outro - piano fade

Now you're "enjoying cozy in heaven," peaceful and free from pain
Dreaming sweet dreams, until we meet again.

Forever in our hearts
