Ember's Green Field

A Tribute Song

Intro - soft piano, ukulele

Verse 1

The first time you barked when we walked through the door,
A tiny Shih-Poo we instantly adored.
With soft little kisses, you'd chase fears away,
Then play garden football throughout the bright day.

Chorus

Sweet Ember, our baby, so precious and true,
For almost five years, our world revolved round you.
Now you rest in the quiet, beyond all our pain,
But in every heartbeat, your love will remain.

Verse 2

After morning walks, your warm cuddles we'd share,
A silent devotion, beyond all compare.
At night on our bed, a sound we knew well,
Your loud, happy snoring, a comforting spell.

Chorus

Sweet Ember, our baby, so precious and true,
For almost five years, our world revolved round you.
Now you rest in the quiet, beyond all our pain,
But in every heartbeat, your love will remain.

Bridge

We love you, baby girl, no more pain in your soul,
You're finally free, complete and made whole.
We will see you soon, when our journey is done,

Underneath heaven's own endless warm sun.

Instrumental - ukulele, piano

Final Chorus

Sweet Ember, our baby, so precious and true,
For almost five years, our world revolved round you.
Now you rest in the quiet, beyond all our pain,
But in every heartbeat, your love will remain.

Outro

We see you running in fields of bright green,
Playing your football, the happiest scene.
Watching and waiting, until we're together again,
Sweet Ember, our darling, beyond every pain.

Outro - piano fade
