Piper's Gentle Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, glockenspiel

Verse 1

At the window pane, a silhouette so small
With watchful eyes, you answered every call
A fluffy coat, a heart so pure and bright
You were my comfort, my guiding star, my light.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Piper, my dear, my very own
Sixteen years of love, how quickly they have flown
A precious bond that time can never break
For your gentle spirit, my heart will always ache.

Verse 2

When dusk would fall, and stars began to gleam
You'd settle near, a cherished, quiet dream
With sleepy sighs, a soft and peaceful sound
The safest place, whenever you were found.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Piper, my dear, my very own
Sixteen years of love, how quickly they have flown
A precious bond that time can never break
For your gentle spirit, my heart will always ache.

Bridge

Thank you for being my baby, my truest friend
A love like ours, it truly knows no end
I will love you forever, with all my heart's embrace

Piper's Gentle Watch (continued)

You filled my world with beauty, joy, and grace.

Instrumental - cello, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, sweet Piper, my dear, my very own
Sixteen years of love, how quickly they have flown
A precious bond that time can never break
For your gentle spirit, my heart will always ache.

Outro

Now with Milly, your sweet sister, you can play
Watching over me, each and every day
In fields of starlight, peaceful, free, and bright
Sleeping soundly, bathed in endless light.

Outro - piano fade
