Milo's Endless Field

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, light piano

Verse 1

An orange flash, a gentle sound,
The sweetest baby I had found.
You'd chirp a greeting, soft and low,
Always in my lap, watched you grow.
A Maine Coon's grace, a purring art,
You captured every piece of my heart.
From tiny paws to whiskers grand,
The dearest friend across the land.

Chorus

Oh, Milo, sweet Milo, twenty years we shared,
A bond of pure love, beyond all compared.
You brought so much sunshine, through laughter and tears,
You'll live in my heart through all of my years.

Verse 2

Your face against mine, a loving embrace,
A special moment, time couldn't erase.
You'd gently rub, a tender sign,
A love so true, completely mine.
My little baby, brave and bright,
Filling every day with golden light.
Each quirky purr, each sleepy sigh,
Reflected in the blue, blue sky.

Chorus

Oh, Milo, sweet Milo, twenty years we shared,
A bond of pure love, beyond all compared.

You brought so much sunshine, through laughter and tears,
You'll live in my heart through all of my years.

Bridge

Go be with Mammy, my sweet boy, so free,
No more pain for you, for all eternity.
I'll see you again in heaven, I know it's true,
My heart will always hold a place for you.

Instrumental - banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Milo, sweet Milo, twenty years we shared,
A bond of pure love, beyond all compared.
You brought so much sunshine, through laughter and tears,
You'll live in my heart through all of my years.

Outro

Now running free in endless tall grass,
A joyful spirit that forever will last.
No more pain, just peace in the skies above,
I'll find you again, my eternal love.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
