Chance's Quiet Tent

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic ukulele, harp

Verse 1

I remember softest fur, a tiny, happy sigh,
Curled within your cozy tent, beneath a watchful eye.
A little Shih Tzu heart so brave, a spirit light and free,
Right there, in your special place, meant only just for thee.

Chorus

Oh, Chance, my little love, my gentle, loyal friend,
Fifteen years of paw prints that will never truly end.
A quiet joy you brought to me, a comfort deep and true,
My precious Chance, I'll always be so grateful for you.

Verse 2

We watched the summer sky ignite, with colors bright and bold,
The fireworks danced above, a story to unfold.
No fear, just curious gaze, a gentle soul so keen,
You brightened every moment, a beautiful, sweet scene.

Chorus

Oh, Chance, my little love, my gentle, loyal friend,
Fifteen years of paw prints that will never truly end.
A quiet joy you brought to me, a comfort deep and true,
My precious Chance, I'll always be so grateful for you.

Bridge

Now in my heart, a whisper soft, a memory so clear,
"You're my little love," I still can almost hear.
A bond like ours could never fade, it shines eternally,

Chance's Quiet Tent (continued)

My little love, you'll always be, a part of endless me.

Instrumental - harp, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Chance, my little love, my gentle, loyal friend,
Fifteen years of paw prints that will never truly end.
A quiet joy you brought to me, a comfort deep and true,
My precious Chance, I'll always be so grateful for you.

Outro

I see you now, so peaceful there, in your beloved tent,
Watching football on your chair, a peaceful life well-spent.
Rest easy, sweet companion, bathed in a soft, warm light,
Dreaming of our precious days, bathed in the fading night.

Outro - ukulele fade
