Kosmo's Loving Gaze

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

You were Daddy's baby boy, my sweet pug so small,
My very best snuggle buddy, answering my call.
Miss you sleeping by my side, every single night,
And the joyous, happy greeting, shining ever so bright.
With your little puggy snorts and a contented sigh,
You'd settle close beside me, as the day went by.
A loyal, loving presence, through laughter and through tears,
You filled my world with happiness, chasing away all fears.

Chorus

Oh, Kosmo, my dear friend, my heart still aches for you,
Thirteen precious years we shared, a bond so strong and true.
Your gentle spirit lingers, a love that won't depart,
Forever in my memories, forever in my heart.

Verse 2

I recall those quiet moments, just you by my side,
Through every season changing, with nowhere left to hide.
Your comforting presence always, a soft and loving gaze,
You brought such warmth and comfort, through all of our days.
From little wiggles of excitement, when I'd walk through the door,
To peaceful naps together, upon the living room floor.
Every moment cherished, a blessing from above,
A perfect little companion, filled with endless love.

Chorus

Oh, Kosmo, my dear friend, my heart still aches for you,
Thirteen precious years we shared, a bond so strong and true.

Your gentle spirit lingers, a love that won't depart,
Forever in my memories, forever in my heart.

Verse 3

You were there through every sorrow, a comfort by my side,
When my father faced his battle, you were nowhere to hide.
With Mommy, Mimi, Alex, and Danny, your love embraced us all,
My shadow always near me, ready for my call.
That unconditional true love, I'd never known before,
You were my world, my reason, and so much, much more.
A once in a thousand years kind of dog, a blessing truly sent,
Thirteen years and more, with every moment heaven-sent.

Chorus

Oh, Kosmo, my dear friend, my heart still aches for you,
Thirteen precious years we shared, a bond so strong and true.
Your gentle spirit lingers, a love that won't depart,
Forever in my memories, forever in my heart.

Verse 4

Remembering 'bye bye in the beep beep,' your excited gleam,
Or happy trips to Petco, living out a sweet dream.
Your 'oink oink,' then the Pizza, and the milk jug, too,
Brought to bed each evening, always right next to you.
You'd sneak under the covers, a head upon the pillow so deep,
Just like a little person, snuggled in for sleep.
My shadow by the sofa, on your favorite perch so high,
Watching the door and TV, beneath the winter sky.

Chorus

Oh, Kosmo, my dear friend, my heart still aches for you,
Thirteen precious years we shared, a bond so strong and true.
Your gentle spirit lingers, a love that won't depart,
Forever in my memories, forever in my heart.

Bridge

Thank you for being my best friend, a gift beyond compare,
Daddy loves you with all his heart, a love we'll always share.
I whisper now, "I'll see you again," until that distant day,
My sweet boy, you'll never truly fade away.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Kosmo, my dear friend, my heart still aches for you,
Thirteen precious years we shared, a bond so strong and true.
Your gentle spirit lingers, a love that won't depart,
Forever in my memories, forever in my heart.

Outro

Now you're running free and joyful, in fields of endless green,
Laying in the warm grass sunbathing, a peaceful, perfect scene.
No more pain, just happy memories, beneath the sky so wide,
My precious Kosmo, forever in my stride.

Outro - piano fade
