Roo's Perky Ears

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

The sound of little paws on polished wood we knew,
A gentle 'click clack' waking me, that was you.
With little kisses for attention, soft and sweet,
And perky ears when lifting up your head to greet.

Chorus

Oh, Roo, our sweet girl, seven years and more,
You brought such joy right to our very door.
A quick dash and a loving heart, so true,
Our precious Kelpie, we'll always remember you.

Verse 2

Each morning light, a dance to go outside,
With happy wiggles, nowhere left to hide.
Across the yard you'd chase a squirrel or Tigger fast,
Those playful moments, meant for us to last.

Chorus

Oh, Roo, our sweet girl, seven years and more,
You brought such joy right to our very door.
A quick dash and a loving heart, so true,
Our precious Kelpie, we'll always remember you.

Bridge

Though paths may part, our love will never cease,
You found your slumber, finding gentle peace.
A final whisper, soft upon the breeze,

Roo's Perky Ears (continued)

"Love you little princess," through the rustling trees.

Instrumental - ukulele, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, Roo, our sweet girl, seven years and more,
You brought such joy right to our very door.

A quick dash and a loving heart, so true,
Our precious Kelpie, we'll always remember you.

Outro

Now running free where skies are always blue.

Outro - ukulele fade
