Sissy's Free Spirit

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, light drums

Verse 1

From the very start, you held my heart so true,
A faithful friend, a loving view.
With Shepherd eyes, so loyal and so keen,
The best companion I had ever seen.
You walked beside me, through and through each day,
Chasing shadows, come what may.
A gentle spirit, strong and ever bright,
Filling every moment with pure light.

Chorus

Oh, Sissy, my sweet girl, fifteen years flew past,
Memories of you are built to last.
In every ray of sunshine, your spirit shines so free,
A celebration of the love you gave to me.

Verse 2

I see you now, with frisbee in the air,
A joyful chase, beyond compare.
Your happy barks, your nimble, playful stride,
With not a worry, deep inside.
You taught me lessons, simple and so deep,
The promises that love can keep.
A wagging tail, a boundless zest for life,
Banishing all sorrow, calming strife.

Chorus

Oh, Sissy, my sweet girl, fifteen years flew past,
Memories of you are built to last.

In every ray of sunshine, your spirit shines so free,
A celebration of the love you gave to me.

Verse 3

If I dared to close my eyes for rest,
You'd gently nudge me, put me to the test.
A wet cold nose, a loving, soft demand,
To let me know you're always close at hand.
Your silent way of saying, 'Let's go play!'
Or just to brighten up my passing day.
A simple touch, a bond so clear and true,
Those little moments, I'll forever miss you.

Bridge

Though silence echoes, where your paws once played,
The love we shared will never fade.
"I love you with all my heart," my final whisper near,
A truth I'll carry, year by year.

Instrumental - light drums, acoustic guitar, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Sissy, my sweet girl, fifteen years flew past,
Memories of you are built to last.
In every ray of sunshine, your spirit shines so free,
A celebration of the love you gave to me.

Outro

Now you're in heaven, running wild and free,
Waiting for the day you'll wait for me.
Across the rainbow bridge, we'll meet again, it's true,
My heart holds onto every part of you.
My Sissy, forever bright.

Forever in our hearts
