Iolaus, My Guiding Star

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The city lights were soft and low, on our nightly walk you'd always know
A silent presence drawing near, stirring up a quiet fear
Then suddenly a turn you made, no time for me to feel afraid
You barked so strong, a fearless sound, as that dark figure turned around
He ran away, into the night, you were my brave and shining light
My baby boy, you kept me safe, a love no time could ever chafe.

Chorus

Oh, ee.ow.luhs, my guiding star, no matter now how far you are
Six years we shared, a precious bond, a love that stretches far beyond
You were my heart, my steadfast friend, a journey with no true end
I miss you more than words can say, I hope to see you again someday.

Verse 2

After a long and weary day, we'd watch Helluva Boss and you would stay
Right by my side, eyes on the screen, the dearest Doberman I'd ever seen
You'd stare at Blitz, his favorite guy, beneath the same familiar sky
And try to mimic that big smile, for just a little while
Such tiny moments, sweet and true, precious memories of me and you.

Chorus

Oh, ee.ow.luhs, my guiding star, no matter now how far you are
Six years we shared, a precious bond, a love that stretches far beyond
You were my heart, my steadfast friend, a journey with no true end
I miss you more than words can say, I hope to see you again someday.

My service dog, my steady ground, when meltdowns hit, you'd always be around.
Through every challenge, big or small, you answered my unspoken call.
One time a pup, you slipped outside, my worried heart, I couldn't hide.
But instead of running, far and free, you ran right back and sat with me.
I felt such pride, a love so deep, a loyal promise you would keep.

Bridge

You were never just a dog to me, you set my spirit free
You are my light, you are my heart, from me you'll never truly part.
In every beat, a memory clear, forever holding you so dear.

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, ee.ow.luhs, my guiding star, no matter now how far you are
Six years we shared, a precious bond, a love that stretches far beyond
You were my heart, my steadfast friend, a journey with no true end
I miss you more than words can say, I hope to see you again someday.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

On May 24th, your brave heart stilled, a quiet space within was filled.
From DCM's hold, your spirit freed, a loving promise, deeply seeded.
Now peacefully you sleep and dream, a beautiful, gentle, flowing stream.

Forever in our hearts
