Sprocket's Forever Garden

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

When I'd tickle your belly, a playful little poke,
You'd cover your face, a sweet and funny joke.
Your curly tail would wag, just to one side it'd sway,
A greeting only you, Sprocket, could display.
Our little greedy girl, you loved every treat,
Each mealtime with you, felt wonderfully complete.
A spirited Foxie heart, so full of joy and grace,
Always a happy smile upon your eager face.

Chorus

Oh, Sprocket, sweet Sprocket, our love will never cease,
Almost twelve years of comfort, joy, and peace.
In every cherished moment, your memory we find,
Leaving paw prints of love, forever in our mind.

Verse 2

After dinner, our ritual, as the day grew late,
You'd stand between my legs, sealed by a loving fate.
Little body rubs and scratches, a bond so pure and deep,
Secrets whispered softly, for your loving heart to keep.
That special little way, you'd snuggle in so tight,
Filling every evening with warmth and gentle light.
A quiet understanding, without a single sound,
The sweetest little girl, we'd ever found.

Chorus

Oh, Sprocket, sweet Sprocket, our love will never cease,
Almost twelve years of comfort, joy, and peace.

In every cherished moment, your memory we find,
Leaving paw prints of love, forever in our mind.

Bridge

Mum, Dad, and your brother Chain, want you to know it's true,
We love and miss you greatly, in all that we do.
We promise, little darling, we'll all be together again,
Our love for you, dear Sprocket, will never ever end.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, banjo

Final Chorus

Oh, Sprocket, sweet Sprocket, our love will never cease,
Almost twelve years of comfort, joy, and peace.
In every cherished moment, your memory we find,
Leaving paw prints of love, forever in our mind.

Outro

Now you're chasing lizards in your garden, free and bright,
Breathing easy, heart unending, bathed in golden light.
Running wild and happy, across the endless green,
Our precious Sprocket, the best we've ever seen.

Outro - guitar fade
