George's Open Sky

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

In a world that felt so cold and gray,
A tiny poodle came my way.
A rescue, scared but with a gentle grace,
I fell in love with your sweet, smiling face.
Your awesome hugs, so tight and warm,
Carried me safely through every storm.
A little friend, so soft and small,
You answered love's most tender call.

Chorus

Oh, George, my dear, for seven years,
You chased away my every fear.
A faithful heart, a loyal friend,
Our love story will never end.

Verse 2

At first, you hid, so shy and so afraid,
A quiet promise, softly made.
Then slowly, your true spirit shone so bright,
Confident, smart, and filled with light.
Each joyful bark, a melody sweet,
Dancing on your happy feet.
So loving and so full of cheer,
You banished every doubt and tear.

Chorus

Oh, George, my dear, for seven years,
You chased away my every fear.

George's Open Sky (continued)

A faithful heart, a loyal friend,
Our love story will never end.

Bridge

You are free to run and fly, far beyond the clouds and sky.
Mommy loves you and misses you forever, please know why.
My heart is broken, a void I can't replace,
But yours is strong enough for both of us in this sacred space.

Instrumental - mandolin, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, George, my dear, for seven years,
You chased away my every fear.
A faithful heart, a loyal friend,
Our love story will never end.

Outro

No more pain, no dementia's haze,
You see clearly through endless days.
Running with me, forever free,
Between your special hugs for me.

Outro - guitar fade
