Jaxon's Gentle Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, long and low
That very first day, watching you grow
Your gentle eyes, a tender gaze
Filled our lives with brighter days
No hint of fear, just trust so deep
A precious promise you would keep
A quiet spirit, calm and kind
The dearest friend we hoped to find.

Chorus

Oh, Jaxon, our sweet, dear Jaxon
Fourteen years, a love so grand
A gentle heart, our loyal companion
Paw print etched upon our hand
We'll celebrate the joy you gave
Every single life you saved
Though tears may fall, we feel you near
Our Jaxon, forever held so dear.

Verse 2

The dinner bells would start to chime
You knew it was your favorite time
A happy dance, a wagging tail
No tasty morsel could ever fail
Then later, close, so warm and true
Those precious snuggles, just with you
A furry head upon my chest
Putting all our cares to rest.

Chorus

Oh, Jaxon, our sweet, dear Jaxon
Fourteen years, a love so grand
A gentle heart, our loyal companion
Paw print etched upon our hand
We'll celebrate the joy you gave
Every single life you saved
Though tears may fall, we feel you near
Our Jaxon, forever held so dear.

Bridge

And in that quiet, soft farewell
A precious secret, you did tell
"Thank you for rescuing me," you sighed
With gratitude, you truly shined.

Instrumental - mandolin, bass

Final Chorus

Oh, Jaxon, our sweet, dear Jaxon
Fourteen years, a love so grand
A gentle heart, our loyal companion
Paw print etched upon our hand
We'll celebrate the joy you gave
Every single life you saved
Though tears may fall, we feel you near
Our Jaxon, forever held so dear.

Outro

Now with Ziggy and Noel, you freely roam
Across the fields, finding your way home
Running free, without a care
Our sweet Jaxon, everywhere.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
