Bentley Bear

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

You walked right in, my heart and soul,
Made every broken piece feel whole.
My best friend, my greatest guide,
Always standing by my side.
A hundred pounds of pure, soft grace,
A blessing found in time and space.
From heaven sent, a loving view,
My dearest Bentley, strong and true.

Chorus

Oh, Bentley Bear, my loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, to the very end.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
You truly made my spirit whole.

Verse 2

There wasn't one special day alone,
Each precious moment, deeply sown.
Your gentle presence, warm and deep,
Secrets that my heart would keep.
The way you'd look, with eyes so kind,
The purest love a soul could find.
In every breath, in every sign,
Forever yours, and always mine.

Chorus

Oh, Bentley Bear, my loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, to the very end.

Your paw print etched upon my soul,
You truly made my spirit whole.

Verse 3

Your quiet moments, day by day,
A gentle nudge to light the way.
With heavy head upon my knee,
A silent language, just for me.
Those morning walks, the trails we'd roam,
You always led me safely home.
A loyal gaze, a knowing stare,
My sweet companion, Bentley Bear.

Chorus

Oh, Bentley Bear, my loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, to the very end.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
You truly made my spirit whole.

Verse 4

You taught me lessons, day by day,
To chase the shadows far away.
A quiet wisdom, understood,
In every moment, pure and good.
Your loving presence, always near,
Dispelled all doubt, and calmed all fear.
A loyal heart, so true and bright,
You filled my world with guiding light.

Bridge

My everything, my whole heart's beat,
You never let me go, my Buz Buz sweet.
I love you so, thank you for all you gave,
Till we meet again, beyond the wave.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Bentley Bear, my loyal friend,
Fourteen and a half years, to the very end.
Your paw print etched upon my soul,
You truly made my spirit whole.

Outro

Now you're swimming in the river bright,
Chewing up your sticks with all your might.
A peaceful dream, beneath the sun,
Your loving journey, bravely run.

Outro - guitar fade
