Natasha's Gentle Heart

A Tribute Song

===NATASHA'S SONG===

===

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

I remember your eyes, framed by lashes so deep,
A beautiful Spaniel, secrets you'd keep.
Your long velvet ears, they knew every sigh,
A gentle sweet spirit, beneath a blue sky.
So warm by my side, through each slumbering night,
A loyal companion, my morning's first light.
You loved your mama, with a heart pure and true,
Every moment a gift, shared only with you.

Chorus

Oh, Natasha, my girl, for fourteen precious years,
You filled up our home, chased away all my fears.
A love so profound, a bond never broken,
In every soft whisper, your memory spoken.

Verse 2

After long days at work, when the world faded dim,
We'd curl on the couch, watching shows on a whim.
Your soft head beside me, a comfort so deep,
While the rest of the world was softly asleep.
You knew when I needed a quiet soft touch,
My sweet gentle shadow, I loved you so much.
Each quiet evening, a memory to hold,
A story of friendship, more precious than gold.

Chorus

Oh, Natasha, my girl, for fourteen precious years,
You filled up our home, chased away all my fears.
A love so profound, a bond never broken,
In every soft whisper, your memory spoken.

Verse 3

Every step of the day, you were close by my side,
A silent observer, with wisdom in your eyes.
No need for words spoken, your comfort was clear,
Chasing away shadows, banishing all fear.
A quiet reassurance, a presence so kind,
The truest of friendships, a treasure to find.
In every small moment, your spirit shone bright,
My sweet guardian angel, my guiding light.

Chorus

Oh, Natasha, my girl, for fourteen precious years,
You filled up our home, chased away all my fears.
A love so profound, a bond never broken,
In every soft whisper, your memory spoken.

Bridge

I know you are watching, my precious sweet girl,
Guiding my footsteps, in this changing world.
I can hardly wait, till I see you again,
Mama loves you, my dear, till the very end.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Final Chorus

Oh, Natasha, my girl, for fourteen precious years,
You filled up our home, chased away all my fears.
A love so profound, a bond never broken,
In every soft whisper, your memory spoken.

Outro

Now watching us all, from beyond the sun's gleam,
For your sister and brother, a loving sweet dream.
Chasing the geese, as they fly through the air,
Or riding shotgun, with not a worry or care.

Outro - guitar fade
