Sam's Morning Welcome

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

The morning sun would softly shine,
And open up your loving eyes.
A welcome purely, truly mine,
A silent joy that would arise.
My faithful Lab, with heart so deep,
A gentle spirit, strong and true.
While I was slumbering in sleep,
You'd greet the day, and greet me too.

Chorus

Oh Sam, my dear, my truest friend,
Twelve years, a fleeting precious grace.
A love that truly has no end,
Though I can't see your smiling face.
You left too soon, a painful blow,
But memories forever stay.
A bond like ours will always glow,
Guiding me through each passing day.

Verse 2

Through fields we walked, with purpose clear,
A working dog, so keen and sharp.
No doubt, no shadow, and no fear,
You played a most important part.
When HRD work called your name,
Your focus was a wondrous sight.
A steadfast heart, a burning flame,
Shining so brave, with all your might.

Sam's Morning Welcome (continued)

Chorus

Oh Sam, my dear, my truest friend,
Twelve years, a fleeting precious grace.
A love that truly has no end,
Though I can't see your smiling face.
You left too soon, a painful blow,
But memories forever stay.
A bond like ours will always glow,
Guiding me through each passing day.

Bridge

Run free, my love, across the land,
Go find your friends, a joyful chase.
Sweet Sara, Nelson, close at hand,
And Hannah, Schan, and Emma's grace.
Until we meet, my heart will yearn,
I love you, Sam, I'm so, so sorry.

Instrumental - violin, piano

Final Chorus

Oh Sam, my dear, my truest friend,
Twelve years, a fleeting precious grace.
A love that truly has no end,
Though I can't see your smiling face.
You left too soon, a painful blow,
But memories forever stay.
A bond like ours will always glow,
Guiding me through each passing day.

Outro

Now playing free, on fields so green,
Where new scents call you to explore.
The happiest dog I've ever seen,
At peace forevermore.

Outro - piano fade
