Jagger's Gentle Rest

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, gentle synth pad

Verse 1

From the start, a tiny Ewok face,
A little fighter, full of grace.
A Shih Tzu spirit, strong and bold,
A story of our love, to be told.
We faced the world, the best of teams,
You filled my days with gentle dreams.
My precious boy, a heart so pure,
A love like ours will long endure.

Chorus

Oh, Jagger, my sweet Jagger, you're here,
For fifteen years and half a year.
My world, your world, so intertwined,
The dearest love my heart could find.

Verse 2

When night would fall, our special space,
Warm cuddles in your favorite place.
On sarin pillow, king-sized soft and deep,
You'd drift to sleep, a quiet heap.
A gentle sigh, a happy sound,
The sweetest comfort we had found.
Those precious moments, soft and slow,
A memory I'll always know.

Chorus

Oh, Jagger, my sweet Jagger, you're here,
For fifteen years and half a year.

My world, your world, so intertwined,
The dearest love my heart could find.

Bridge

My dearest boy, so true and kind,
A love like yours, I'll never find.
Mama couldn't have loved you more, it's true,
My everything, my sweet boy, you.

Instrumental - soft piano, plucked harp

Final Chorus

Oh, Jagger, my sweet Jagger, you're here,
For fifteen years and half a year.
My world, your world, so intertwined,
The dearest love my heart could find.

Outro

Now quiet rest, no struggle there,
No more hard breathing, free from care.
Just peace for you, serene and deep,
Perhaps a treat in gentle sleep.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
