Dollar Bill's Gentle Nudge

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, light percussion

Verse 1

A loyal friend, a lab so grand
With gentle nudges, paw in hand
You'd ask to go, a knowing glance
To play within the garden's dance.

A silent plea, a loving soul
Making every moment whole.
Even when the pain was near
Your faithful spirit conquered fear.

Chorus

Oh, Dollar Bill, our shining star
Thirteen sweet years, no matter how far
Your joyful spirit, bright and free
Forever wagging, eternally.

Verse 2

When evening fell and stars would gleam
We'd gather close, a cherished dream
Upon the bed, our cozy place
Feeling comfort, love, and grace.
A happy sigh, a gentle snore
Always wanting just a bit more.
Your quiet presence, warm and deep
Secrets that our hearts will keep.

Chorus

Oh, Dollar Bill, our shining star
Thirteen sweet years, no matter how far

Dollar Bill's Gentle Nudge (continued)

Your joyful spirit, bright and free
Forever wagging, eternally.

Bridge

You whispered soft, a tender plea
"Remember us, remember me.
So when the time for reunion starts,
You'll know us well within your hearts."

Instrumental - mandolin solo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Dollar Bill, our shining star
Thirteen sweet years, no matter how far
Your joyful spirit, bright and free
Forever wagging, eternally.

Outro

Now on the other side, so bright
With friends long gone, bathed in light.
Running free or in soft sleep
A promise that our souls will keep.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
