Verse 1

A sweet boy with a gentle purr,
Who loved his sister, Eva, her.
By the Christmas tree, a warming sight,
You'd sit so cozy, bathed in firelight.
A little "mow-wow," soft and low,
The sweetest signal I could know,
A call for comfort, soft and clear,
Dispelling every doubt and fear.

Chorus

Oh, Seamus, my love, a guiding star,
For ten beautiful years, you weren't so far.
In every moment, gentle and deep,
Your memory forever I will keep.

Verse 2

Each night you'd climb, a comforting weight,
On my pillow, sealing our sweet fate.
Above my head, your soft fur near,
Whispering solace, banishing fear.
A quiet presence, always there,

Seamus's Gentle Purr (continued)

Beyond compare, beyond compare.
My sleepy guardian, soft and bright,
Guiding me through the longest night.

Chorus

Oh, Seamus, my love, a guiding star,
For ten beautiful years, you weren't so far.
In every moment, gentle and deep,
Your memory forever I will keep.

Verse 3

Your gentle presence, day by day,
Chased every lonely thought away.
With stripes so soft, a tabby's grace,
You found your well-loved, special place.
A silent comfort, ever true,
In everything that I would do.
My little shadow, warm and deep,
Secrets only my heart could keep.

Bridge

I love you with all my heart, sweet friend,
And miss you terribly until the end.
But I know you are okay now, no more pain,
In a beautiful place, we'll meet again.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Seamus, my love, a guiding star,
For ten beautiful years, you weren't so far.
In every moment, gentle and deep,
Your memory forever I will keep.

Outro

Now perfect sun shines, warm and true,
With endless treats awaiting you.
Strong and healthy, pain has ceased,
Your gentle spirit finds its peace.
Loving Julie, who gave her best,
While you sleep softly, truly blessed.

Outro - piano fade
