Bo's Loving Echo

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

The Bronco door would softly click
And then your bark, so loud and quick.
I'd step inside, a happy sound,
Your clanking collar all around.
With blanket clutched within your jaw,
A wagging tail, defying law.
A Lab mix heart, so wild and free,
My very first glimpse of you, Bo, with me.

Chorus

Oh, Bo, you filled our every day,
For eleven years, you showed the way.
A loyal spirit, kind and true,
Our world was brighter because of you.

Verse 2

From morning coffee, soft and slow,
Your gentle cuddles helped us grow.
A boat cruise on the lake, so grand,
The finest partner in the land.
Then bedtime snuggles, warm and deep,
Your faithful watch while we would sleep.
In every moment, big or small,
You answered friendship's loving call.

Chorus

Oh, Bo, you filled our every day,
For eleven years, you showed the way.

Bo's Loving Echo (continued)

A loyal spirit, kind and true,
Our world was brighter because of you.

Bridge

We whispered soft, you were loved so much,
With every gaze and every touch.
Such joy you brought to us, it's true,
Our very best, our good boy, you.

Instrumental

Cello solo, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Bo, you filled our every day,
For eleven years, you showed the way.
A loyal spirit, kind and true,
Our world was brighter because of you.

Outro

Now with your Dad, beyond the blue,
His two dogs there, and Bentley too.
Running free on endless fields of green,
The best boy we have ever seen.

Outro - strings fade
