Nason's Mountain Lake

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The day you came, a chocolate gleam, so handsome and so bright,
A smart and funny Lab, you filled our world with pure delight.
Sweet and loving, loyal, true, a joy in every stride,
Through nature walks and mountain lakes, you always walked beside.

Chorus

Oh, Nason, my amazing boy, six wonderful years we knew,
Every single moment shared, a love so strong and true.
Though silence fills the house today, and tears begin to fall,
Your memory shines, a guiding light, answering every call.

Verse 2

Our 6 am morning cuddles, a precious start to every day,
Your happy butt wiggles, chasing all the blues away.
A quiet gentle presence, a comfort by my side,
With every glance, a knowing look, where love could never hide.

Chorus

Oh, Nason, my amazing boy, six wonderful years we knew,
Every single moment shared, a love so strong and true.
Though silence fills the house today, and tears begin to fall,
Your memory shines, a guiding light, answering every call.

Verse 3

You loved to play, a hide-and-seek, with playful pounce and bound,
Our stolen shoes, a proud display, the sweetest gift we'd found.
Named for the Creek, the Ridge you knew, your Wenatchee home so dear,

Your spirit runs through mountain lands, forever strong and clear.

Bridge

Chase all the chipmunks you want now, across the endless green,
I love you forever, my amazing boy, the best I've ever seen.
We will be together again someday, beyond the morning dew,
Until that time, my heart holds tight, a special place for you.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Nason, my amazing boy, six wonderful years we knew,
Every single moment shared, a love so strong and true.
Though silence fills the house today, and tears begin to fall,
Your memory shines, a guiding light, answering every call.

Outro

Now running free, no pain or sorrow, sniffing every bush and tree,
Playing fetch in water clear, joyful and completely free.
Resting in the warm sunshine, a peaceful, happy sleep,
Until we meet again, my love, the promises we keep.

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
