Khloe's Spirit Bloom

A Tribute Song

Gentle piano, soft guitar

Verse 1

Little Khloe-Jean, my spirit guide so true
A tiny teacup heart, always seeing me through
My ride or die companion, never left my side
Through every tear and sickness, with nowhere to hide
You'd share my freeze pops when I couldn't eat a thing
The sweetest best friend, the comfort you would bring
I know you're watching over, from skies so clear and bright
My precious little shadow, my everlasting light.

Chorus

Oh, Khloe, my love, a memory so deep
Eighteen magical years, a promise we would keep
Your gentle presence lingers, though you're out of sight
My Khloe, my dearest Khloe, you made everything right.

Verse 2

When bedtime came, a special joy we'd share
Cuddled close together, without a single care
With ice cream bars and movies, a quiet, sweet delight
Just you and I, my darling, bathed in the soft moonlight
Your purring little heart, a rhythm in the night
Filling every moment with a tender, steady light
Those quiet stolen moments, etched within my soul
Making every evening perfectly whole.

Chorus

Oh, Khloe, my love, a memory so deep
Eighteen magical years, a promise we would keep

Your gentle presence lingers, though you're out of sight
My Khloe, my dearest Khloe, you made everything right.

Bridge

I'm sorry my sweetest love, for tears I cannot mend
But know I'll be there with you, until the very end
Before you know it, darling, we'll meet beyond the blue
My heart will find its solace, forever close to you.

Ambient pads, light strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Khloe, my love, a memory so deep
Eighteen magical years, a promise we would keep
Your gentle presence lingers, though you're out of sight
My Khloe, my dearest Khloe, you made everything right.

Outro

Now you're running free, in tall green grass so wide
Stopping to smell the flowers, with nowhere left to hide
Playing with your brothers, Kacy-Jax and Henry, too
My Khloe, my sweet Khloe, forever I'll miss you.
