A House Full of Love

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

Tiny Spud, a little friend, fit right in my hand
And Max, a puppy's playful end, a joy across the land
Sweet Molly, found her loving place, a rescue and a queen
Then Sprout, with such a charming grace, from flower pot unseen
Carter Tom just walked right in, a shadow in the sun
Each journey had its own begin, our family had begun.

Chorus

Oh, Max, Spud, Molly, Sprout, and Carter Tom
You filled our home, you sang our song
Through countless seasons, day by day
You chased the shadows far away
A love so true, a bond so deep
Our precious promises to keep.

Verse 2

Each night when stars began to gleam
You'd gather close, a cozy dream
Into the bed, a gentle leap
My heart a secret I would keep
Your purrs, your sighs, a sleepy sound
The safest haven could be found
Sprout would rise and settle low
Watching all the flowers grow.

Chorus

Oh, Max, Spud, Molly, Sprout, and Carter Tom
You filled our home, you sang our song

Through countless seasons, day by day
You chased the shadows far away
A love so true, a bond so deep
Our precious promises to keep.

Bridge

The moon and back, around the world so wide
My endless love will be your guide
Each paw print on my soul will stay
You brightened every single day
Forever cherished, always near
Dispelling every doubt and fear.

Instrumental - ukulele, glockenspiel

Final Chorus

Oh, Max, Spud, Molly, Sprout, and Carter Tom
You filled our home, you sang our song
Through countless seasons, day by day
You chased the shadows far away
A love so true, a bond so deep
Our precious promises to keep.

Outro

Now sleeping softly, peaceful, calm and free
Beneath the sky for all to see
In gentle dreams, you gently roam
Forever cherished, safe at home.

Outro - ukulele fade
