Annie & Harry's Gentle Dream

A Tribute Song

Intro - fingerpicked guitar, soft piano

Verse 1

A blue ball rolled, a tiny chase began,
Sweet Harry held it, part of the plan.
Then Annie flew, a blur of joyous grace,
A happy puppy in a beloved space.
One a spaniel, with a heart so wide,
The other a dachshund, always by my side.
Two spirits entwined, a memory clear,
Dispelling every doubt, every little fear.

Chorus

Oh, Annie and Harry, my sweet pair,
Sixteen years of love beyond compare.
In every gentle breeze, your spirits play,
Guiding me through night and through the day.

Verse 2

Six AM would bring your loving plea,
Annie's wet nose, a sweet call to me.
Then Harry's bark, his blue ball in his mouth,
Bouncing on the bed, chasing slumber south.
A morning dance, a joyous, waking sound,
The best alarm clock I have ever found.
With wagging tails and bright, adoring eyes,
You filled my world with sunshine from the skies.

Chorus

Oh, Annie and Harry, my sweet pair,
Sixteen years of love beyond compare.

Annie & Harry's Gentle Dream (continued)

In every gentle breeze, your spirits play,
Guiding me through night and through the day.

Bridge

I miss you deeply, my love for you runs true,
If you could live again, I hope you would pursue.
A chance to chat me back, a life anew,
My dearest friends, I wait for you.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Annie and Harry, my sweet pair,
Sixteen years of love beyond compare.
In every gentle breeze, your spirits play,
Guiding me through night and through the day.

Outro

At Rainbow Bridge, beyond the gentle rain,
You're playing still, easing all my pain.
With that blue ball, beneath the golden sun,
Our journey's paused, but not undone.

Outro - cello fade
