Luke and Zane, Always Together

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The day you came, a memory so clear,
Luke, a shepherd's spirit, chasing every fear.
Zane, a tiny poodle, with kindness in his gaze,
You filled our home with comfort, through so many happy days.
One a guardian, strong and true,
The other gentle, shining through.
A perfect pair, a joyful sight,
Bringing endless love and light.

Chorus

Oh, Luke and Zane, our dearest friends,
Nine and eleven years, a love that never ends.
Though separate paths you trod for a while,
Now reunited, in every single smile.
Best pals forever, side by side,
In our hearts, you'll always reside.

Verse 2

Our nightly ritual, a cherished, quiet space,
On the sofa after dinner, a soft and warm embrace.
We'd watch the screen together, just us and the TV's glow,
Those simple moments, dearer than you'll ever know.
Two heads resting, soft and near,
Washing away all doubt and fear.
Your happy sighs, a peaceful sound,
The sweetest company ever found.

Chorus

Luke and Zane, Always Together (continued)

Oh, Luke and Zane, our dearest friends,
Nine and eleven years, a love that never ends.
Though separate paths you trod for a while,
Now reunited, in every single smile.
Best pals forever, side by side,
In our hearts, you'll always reside.

Bridge

Thank you for all the joy you brought to our lives, it's true,
Our consolation now, that you are together, me and you.
Best buddies again, running free forever, that's what we see,
A bond unbroken, wild and happy, for all eternity.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Luke and Zane, our dearest friends,
Nine and eleven years, a love that never ends.
Though separate paths you trod for a while,
Now reunited, in every single smile.
Best pals forever, side by side,
In our hearts, you'll always reside.

Outro

In pet heaven, watching over us, so bright,
Happy together, bathed in golden light.
Running free, side by side, once more,
Your love forever knocks upon our door.

Outro - guitar fade
