Baby's Honey Eyes

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

I remember clearly that sunny day
A small pitbull pup, just months of age, I'd say.
Across the sidewalk, you walked with such grace
And right then and there, my heart found its place.
A love at first sight, so pure and so true
My world was forever changed, all because of you.
With every firm step, a quiet delight,
You stepped into my life, making everything bright.

Chorus

Oh, Baby, my Baby, my sweet precious girl
Fourteen years you graced and enriched my whole world.
Your love was a beacon, a steady warm flame
Forever I'll whisper and cherish your name.

Verse 2

I recall that look, a familiar soft plea
Those "precious moments" eyes, always asking me.
For a treat or a snack, at any time of day
You had a special charm, a wonderful way.
A gentle nudge, a soft, loving stare
A bond woven deeply, beyond all compare.
Your quirky demands, a joy to behold,
A story of pure love, beautifully told.

Chorus

Oh, Baby, my Baby, my sweet precious girl
Fourteen years you graced and enriched my whole world.

Baby's Honey Eyes (continued)

Your love was a beacon, a steady warm flame
Forever I'll whisper and cherish your name.

Bridge

Thank you for loving me, for all you taught my soul
You made my life feel wonderfully whole.
If love could have saved you, you'd be here today
But a rainbow appeared, showing your way.
To a home in the sky, where you're waiting for me,
I wish I could tell you, "Wait, my sweet Baby."

Instrumental - strings, oboe

Final Chorus

Oh, Baby, my Baby, my sweet precious girl
Fourteen years you graced and enriched my whole world.
Your love was a beacon, a steady warm flame
Forever I'll whisper and cherish your name.
You'll always be my Baby, forever and a day.

Outro

Now you're sitting there waiting, beautiful and grand
With those honey-colored eyes, across a new land.
No white face or milky, but youthful and bright
Bathed in the endless, soft, loving light.
My beautiful Baby, young once again,
Peacefully waiting, beyond human ken.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
